

Agape House Christian Campus Ministry Campus Minister Position Description

Agape House, an ecumenical ministry at the University of Illinois at Chicago, seeks a half-time Campus Minister. This person will: build, grow, and sustain pastoral relationships with students and the UIC community; lead efforts in outreach and interaction with the UIC campus and community; share in visioning and planning of the team ministry with the Director, with an emphasis on implementation and outreach; help design and lead worship, small groups, Bible studies, service projects, and other programs; and interpret the mission and ministry of Agape House to the sponsoring denominations.

The ideal candidate will be an ordained or ordainable minister from a denomination supportive of Agape House's ministry. (Currently: Presbyterian Church (USA), United Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ, American Baptist Church, Church of the Brethren, or United Methodist Church.) The ideal candidate will have a Master of Divinity from an accredited theological seminary; will have interest and skills in working in a diverse university setting in an ecumenical ministry with interfaith partners; and will have interest and skills in working in a theologically progressive organization that is 'Open and Affirming' on issues of sexuality and gender identity and is committed to a social justice witness. This position will work as a part of a team ministry under the supervision of the Director of Agape House.

To apply, please submit via email:

An introductory letter; a resume or current CV; other pastoral application materials, such as a Personal Information Form, etc.; and names and contact information for three references.

This is a half-time position, salary and benefits to be negotiated with the Agape House Board of Directors. Persons from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
